

The Great GodSong Chant Instructions 1/1

The 'Great Commandment of Life' was given in the Gospels of the Holy Bible in Matthew 22:37-40 with the following words:

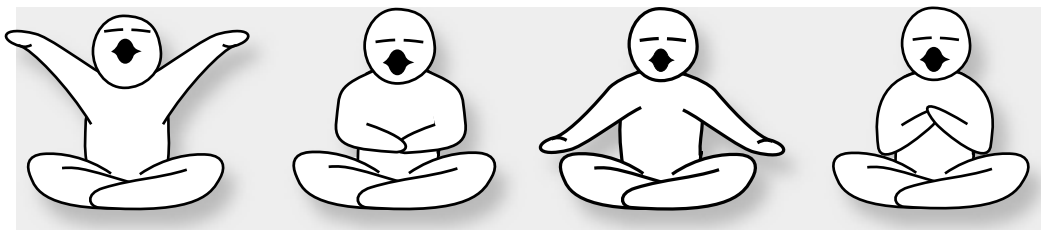

"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

Performing the Great GodSong fulfils this Commandment.

This prayer chant should be performed on a regular basis as a part of a 'Daily Dedicated Spiritual Practice.' It should also be engaged whenever you are troubled for any reason. Simply continue to perform the prayer until you begin to experience an 'inner peace' about whatever the situation might be. It is then suggested that you continue even further until you enter into a felt sense of gratitude and full acceptance about the condition. This is your assurance that healing has taken place in the soul, as well as in the body.

Outer Version

Use this version for general practice , as well as blessing and/or healing outer conditions, along with the releasing of resentments.

 God's the Love that I Am... My Neighbor* is the Love that I Am...
God's the Love that I Am... My Neighbor is the Love that I Am...

* For the term 'My Neighbor' you can substitute the name of any individual, organization or object of your attention that you wish to forgive, bless or protect.

Suggestion: One of the most beneficial substitutions that you can make for the term 'Neighbor,' is to use the word 'Father' in the first line, and the word 'Mother' in second line. This is because God has promised us that if we "honor our Father and Mother we will live long and prosper." (Exodus 20:12) This Promise is a 'divine potential' that exists within us all, and it can only be revealed through us by a confession of Love.

Inner Version

Use this version for self-healing, self-forgiveness and the releasing of regrets.

 God's the Love that I Am... (My Name)* is the Love that I Am...
God's the Love that I Am... (My Name) is the Love that I Am...

* Keep in mind that the very first Neighbor that your Spirit encounters in this world is your own human personality, or body-mind, also as known as 'the Beast.' In this sense, your Spirit is the Beauty that transforms your Beast with Love.

 Note: This chant is to be sung to the melody of the original 'GodSong Chant,' which is available in mp3 format at: GracefulWays.org. You can download, and use the 'instrumental version' to facilitate this practice.
